Passionate Lover

Nafees ul Qadir

Traipse blindly to catch the courteous flowers.

Met suddenly the quagmire of ruthless lovers.

Set my eyes on and get all-around the human inconsistency.

Wailing bitterly on my veracious existence.

Falling down, dealing with freak fear.

Sighing and sleeping, listening my heart instead of meek ear.

Dreaming now above the stars and stormy clouds.

Secure dove from the rainy hails of weepy memories and darken shades.

Smiling and shining, waiting true love can heal.

Through every of my truthful words. I promise you to deal.

Waiting the day you and me becomes we.

Flying now on the golden paths with zeal for the luscious meal.

Under the moon, looking the puffs shining and bright.

Jarring the people around, how could this be?

Leaving their site, bow their heads below my height.

With blissful laugh and smile, we both say, it is all right.
