Timelessness

Dr. Na'im Ezghoul
Department of English Language & Literature,
Taibah University, Medina Munawar,
Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

There and nowhere else dreams are so real;
Time flows into timelessness; into eternity they crescendo reach.
Into a spiritual mating they make it to the peak.
So tuned and seamless their breath and speech.

The dream world time's impingement filters
Among arresting, eye-catching mountains, cliffs and rivers,
Nature renames the clock's time marching
Segues into Nirvana outside time floating.

It veils time's growth, and to the sublime yields,
Oozing into the realm of timelessness,
Into a world where man's logic dies;
Only to give way to free blessings as it strides.

So amused by the heavenly mood,
Held spellbound, Time falls asleep.

About the Poet:

Na'im Ezghoul was born and schooled in Jordan. He spent about ten years in India pursuing his studies for obtaining the Bachelor (Arts), Master's (English Literature) and finally doctorate in English. He had his initial poetic experiences as a creative writer right from the first year of his stay in India. In fact, many of his poems got published in well reputed newspapers of India. Among his famous poems are Hocus Pocus, The Heart Once... !!! and the Broken Mirror.
