Diamond

Kajori Chattopadhyay Delhi University.

“Darling, you’re my diamond!”

Yea, I’m a diamond-

Your diamond.

An image of perfection.

Symmetrical in my smooth and chiseled skin:

Translating banal light into a kaleidoscope.

Precious than all the rest-

Loved, Cherished and Valued.

I’m a diamond-

Your diamond.

Sawed, lasered, girdled into perfection,

Chafed and polished into an obedient sparkle:

A harlequin of colors.

Precious than all the rest-

Guarded, Owned and Displayed.

About the Poet:

Kajori Chattopadhyay is a budding poet and painter with a flair for the abstract. She obtained a Master of Arts degree in English (literature) from Delhi University. She is a published author of research papers in the International Journal of English Language, Literature in Humanities.
