Life's Bliss

Revathy C M

Post Graduate in English Language and Literature,
University of Kerala,
Kerala.

Amidst life's monotonous routine,
Destiny sits like a crown,
Few years of slumber and idleness,
Slept away in a blink of an eye

Taking deep breaths expeditiously,
Winding the dreadful clock,
Life is too short anyway,
To remember; every memory,
Joys I store and sorrows I dumb.

And then the memories vanished,
Behind the flurry floure,
Carried away by the restless tail,
Myriad paces steadfast timidly.

I remember the day we met,
At first, you gave me life anew,
Brought luminescence to my eyes,
Numbed me from the pain.

Happiness poured drop by drop,
I watched desperately for more,
Free to break the walls around me,
Totally, a bliss soaked in a surreal world.
