Humanity

Sabarinathan. V
Assistant Professor of English,
Loyola College-Mettala.

By creating human beings unknowingly, the world
Stumbles, loses its path.
Being born as opportunities, people argues in need of Selfishness.
Humanity, stitches inside the thread in the tricolour
Legends, who inhale diversity and exhale unity,
Now became statues, and torn as notice on the wall.
And... why?
We fold our eyes, and failed to see fellow human,
Neglecting the helping hands of them.
And... why?
Many are in poverty, some are in wealth.
The witness brainwashed in traffic of injustice,
Humanity forgets something, humanity neglects something.
Here is a letter...
To a man who is going to die at last in the world.
Fertilize the humanity on the soil,
And let the new world born out of humanity.
