Come Unburden Your Mind

Swanti Sharma

Come unburden your mind
And write few lines.
Let the pang leave altogether
No matter if sobs accompanied.
A new born when takes its flight
Or a penguin when jumps down from some height
Gather up courage to do or die.
Come and unburden your mind!
Between the sighs, O hear! Hear your mind
the breath so damp and the wet eyes.
Even the silence silences the stormy inside
Like a vast ocean plays a mother to the roaring rivulets.
Oh! Come and unburden your mind.
Pen down your grief and breathe afresh
till the inkpot of your mind is emptied!
