Inheritance/Iteration

Jonathan Doughty

The creator revived just as the author died
Missing the mark, original sin was pointedly unseated
But soon replaced by structure's genesis, suspension of ignorance.
Nonage to limit, absence at core, and fetish of text all
Found lovers of god with guilt and man's critics with angst
The fall of man and that into humanity could not transcend
For the deception was an angel of light and a lucid cogito
Holy saints and perfervid scholars invoked in defense
Looked on from beyond in times of martyrdom and suicide
Glossolalia fell upon the once-provincial
And the reception unto
Eternal life provided
Just time enough
For discourse
Unceasing.
