Being Principled or Speaking of Principles: Which is Worthwhile?

G.H. Abeyweera

Department of Management Sciences
Faculty of Management
Uva Wellassa University of Sri Lanka

One speaks of principles

Being a Member of the House of Common

Speaks of knowledge, attitudes and skills

Picking up some lexis here and there

Not knowing who presented

The Asian Philosophy of Education

To the world

Another speaks being principled

Being a Member of the House of Common

Speaks of his novel principles that are needed

To a country by knowing knowledge,

Attitude and, skills are mandatory,

Precisely knowing whose philosophy it is

And also of worthy of them and present

His philosophy of education

To the world

Being principled

Or speaking of principles

Which is worthwhile?
