On a Long and Greedy Night..

Madhumathi B.S
Assistant Professor
G.F.G.C, Nelamangala
Bangalore

Sleep slips between my Eyelids and the night,
as Usual long.

Dogs howl like chauvinists why are they Awake the whole night, as though their wires in the brain are dripping with some Clairvoyance
or
Some wailing their soul out.

The fans are turning and turning
the night as usual long the soul is aching
even in winter
when the rain is giant pouring As in a sieve
The multi-channels undone

Eyelids become heavy with
sleepless nights
the mouth will yawn its biggest

but the bloody mind
refuses to perch
on some twig or branch
It is always looking for the exotic.
