Here You Are

Dr. Abdullah Shaghi
Department of English,
Faculty of Education, Zabid
Hodeidah University,
Hodeidah, Yemen.

Here you are,
Amidst the space
And the eyeshot,
A light alphabetized
During all the ages.

At the nightfall,
Here you are
A cast: said to be 'gold';
Rather, 'aquamarine' I say.

As an Oasis
Here you are,
Through the deserts,
For the sake of
A roaming man,
To whom the time
Scanted to give a hand.

Here you are,
Through the downpour,
And the dew,
Nimbuses that presage
The welfare,
As well as opulence.

Through fragrance,
Along with aroma,
Here you are,
Jasmine whose sent
Has become 'daffodil';
So one are they.

Like Nature,
Here you are,
When embraced
By the spring,

It's clothed a dress'
With beauty,
Has been decorated.

Here you are,
Like a meadow,
Through the meadows, for who's madly in love;
Who, in renewed intonation,
Has adored 'beauty'.
Here you are,
O whom, whenever,
With no passion of yours,
Adored the heart,
It would vagabond.

Here you are!
If it was thinkable
To rise the sky,
A necklace would I make,
That was arranged
With the stars;
And which then a dower
Would I make,
For the dearest beloved,
With whom showered the time
And cheerfully brought into being.

Here you are
O whom I saw
And never shall I see
The like of you
To be unique
With the beauty.
