The flourishing of technological wonders reaching the burning zenith, at which everything is reduced to ashes Bullets, shells, guns, cannons, bombs, missiles
The worst,
the nuclear and the atomic Roasted flesh and ashes of bodies Total annihilation

The creator being destroyed by the creation The crime of self-deception and that of shameless vanity Making war is not what we are born for, but making love is!
So why,
at this full summer and the flowering season of his cultivation, still lost in a wrench?
Let it not be true that man's greatest enemy is man

Use your sciences to abate and avoid all these battles
Let the cool of the moon reign in magnificence, not the piercing sunbeams

Easy, yes, it is to break a stick, but not a stock of sticks, for the latter is much stronger Let it be a metaphor of human strength

Living in a small "global village" why such a delay to build a cozy little room of mutuality with modern miracles, mushrooming
