Today's Saddest Song

Aparna B.

Assistant Professor of English
NSS College
Ottapalam
Palakkad district
Kerala
India.

Again April.
Not the cruellest,
Not the blissful,
Full of frigid surprises.

April,
Wading through lies.

April,
On another shore
Clouds parting
to liberate a whispering rain
From the beaks of summer.

April,
Wanton birds hide
In the depths of the oasis
Indifferent fingers on raw skin
Undoing the burning
Adorning the awkward
Sober, the elements laughing out loud.

April,
I remember the gifts,
The loss, pain, passion

And the last flower of your summer.

April, April, April...
