One Lipped Song

Shiva Prasad Sharma

Of the dispossessed I sing,
With that warped lip of mine, I sing!!
Songs not about the dancing earth, or the blue sky and the green grass,
Songs not about the fire, but the clouds, I sing!

The smiles of the still born,
Ripped apart from their mother's womb
Songs of sunshine amidst the cankerous showers of AFSPA* from the laps of snow clad Kanchenjunga and the Nilachal*, reverberating in the gorges of Sohra* and the placid loktak*

About a homeland, where mothers parade naked, I sing:
Indian Army Rape Us - writ large on their miffed bosom
Of hamlets burnt down in a frenzy of cocainated nationalism
Of cholera strewn tea gardens,
Sweet taint of burning flesh, of the youth lured by the mirage of liberation,
Of the youth who lit pyres on the roof of his homeland and danced under it,
Liberation is a Duswapna* - a nightmare

I sing amidst armed escorts
Words breaking apart from my song
Like the red falling apart from the Krishnachura*
But not without anticipating a new dawn.
