Child of the Poor Destiny

Diptapratim MidyaChowdhury
M.Phil. Scholar,
Vidyasagar University,
West Bengal, India.

Here, the child is lying on the sea-shore,--
Its head and front side on the sand;
Finding no country to survive
It destroys itself—its life has come to an end.
Palestine, Syria, Damaskash or Ishtanbul—
Where is its born-place situated—
Is not a big question.
Black child or White child or an
Admixture of both White and Black—
Is not a big question.
It may be a child of a poor woman
Or, of a rich woman, or, of a
Mediocre woman.
But, it also is not a big question.
What is the fact here is a fact
Of same stature in every country,
Where all children are
The easy victims of war.
Stop the warriors as fast as you can,
Then, the real peace will come again.
