A Past Full of Memories

Ruchi Nagpal

Going back to the morning grass,
Wet with winter's dew.
A time when life was ebullient,
Orthography of worry was unknown.
A past full of nostalgia,
Of spring, colors and moon
A time when bliss surpassed every other emotion,
When grey of the sky was rain and not impending doom.
Aberrant was unseen and calmness engulfed every astound,
A time when we celebrated chaos and peace was a bane to existence.

We have come so far and memories are getting vague with each passing moment,
But the desire within, to relive it, is what drives us back,
To a past, which calls us every trice?
