Window

Jagari Mukherjee

Finding you after twelve years was a revelation –
I realized that the only window of the cottage
Had been closed for a dozen years
And when it has opened now, I can feel
A hurricane entering through the window
And whirl around my home;
The house was dark but now
Irradiated by a dazzling light
That could be the combined brightness
Of many stars together...

I am afraid that the passion of the hurricane
Will shatter the glass and tear out
The windows and destroy the house;
Yet am rooted to the spot
Where I first stood when I
Opened the window after twelve years
To let you enter and whirl
My heart around in your
Frightening storm...
