Parents

Malik Shipra
Assistant Prof.
Department of English
Al-Baha University
Saudi Arabia.

They never let you down
Their every frown
Was worth more than a crown
But that you realize later
When your life becomes better
They never let you feel any pain
Their worries were indeed not in vain
But that you realize later.....

Your needs were always their top priority,
Fulfilled without any claim or feeling of superiority
They stood firmly like a solid foundation in your adversity
Your happiness was their only invasion
Your success was their proudest possession
They encouraged you day and night,
Sometimes in anger and sometimes in delight
Like a compass they guided you in right direction
But that you realize later.....

They sacrificed their entire lives for us,
Without any expectations; or fuss
They pledged readily; all their belongings for us
Our names were silently mentioned in their prayers
Wishing for our good health and long years
They always prayed for our well being
Shaping us into better human beings
From our birth to growing years
But that you realize later.....

Sometimes with love and sometimes with strife,
They equipped us to fight the battles of life,
Removing all our fears and fright,
They taught us to be patient in every calamity,
And to remain firmly grounded to reality,
To always learn from our experiences and failures
And to never boast on attaining the glories or grandeurs
To be deeply embedded in the love of Almighty and humanity
But that you realize later.....
