That Unknown Dream

Kunal Narayan Uniyal

That dream, that unknown dream which wakes us from the mirage of life
Giving tremors, that jolts us hard from the ever-known truths
That farfetched surrealist which is woven with the threads of sublime
That unknown dream

We are shaken, we are woken, we are troubled by the squalls of supreme light
Only to be thrown into the arms of that divine understanding
To be greeted by the fathomless oceans
Hidden deep in the heart of vivid realities
The dream or the truth, so hard to find

Let the heart be churned by that enormous waves
Which digs the realities from the core of that time
That time which try hopelessly to separate the infinite from the finite understanding
That dream which whispers so quietly yet so serenely into the ears of life.
