My Dream

Abhiroop Singh

Everyone has a wet dream

And so do I...

Run away from the people

And hide 'Neath the sky

Make my own constellation

And give my luck a try

Travel the world alone

And spread thy wings to fly

Everyone has a wet dream

And so do I...

Find someone to love

And have shoulder to cry

Do strange things

And being the bad-guy

Sit at some beach

And have some apple pie

Everyone has a wet dream

And so do I...

Bio:

Abhiroop Singh is in his first year of bachelor's degree in English Literature with Creative Writing at Bangor University, Wales, United Kingdom. He is very fond of reading Hindi and Urdu Poetry apart from English works. When he's not reading, he spends time writing in both languages imagining himself living as vagabond and exploring souls, making him a little empathetic and a lot more of mess. Also, He enjoys listening to folk music, ghazal and other forms of Indian Music and is very passionate about travelling. He recently acted as a Resource Person and delivered lecture at Arya Girls College, Ambala, on "How to read, analyse and understand any literary piece of writing?" and trying his hand in Public Speaking.
