Asifa's Message from Other World

Ghulam Mustafa Pirzada

*Ah! The four varmint
Everyone under the sun
Sees you so
Dungy
Filthy
Cruddy
Crummy
Scummy.
There's world cannot ensure me
Of your dreadful castigation.
Since I see not true Islam
In any nation.
But here I will not reveal
That before God
Will I let you go or not
For you snatched from me
My biggest right.*

*O Baba! O Mama! You know
I can't
Narrate my fate
For I know will it etch
Your double living
Scars too much.
Know that to me
Open has been the gate
To dent
In the plane eternal.
Where all I see but oblate.*

*O Baba! O Mama! You know
I had
No home
No residence
No address.
Here I am in mansion untold.
Glaring each instant manifold*

*O Baba ! O Mama! You know
I am shown here
The you two both*

*So happy
So jolly
In full troth.
As promised in Scriptures
Here is,
No fear
No grief.*

*O Baba! O Mama! You know
You are alien to
Freaks ,
Whims,
Deceits
Of the present age.
Be firm
To let not deter your gauge.*

*O all Mothers!
Keep your daughters
As private as is their's pudenda.
For human Id
Is a monster too hid.*

*And O all my pain sharers
Specially the young brethren
Of long oppressed vale.
This little kid
Was revealed
Some advices for the same dale.
Know that every single sort of oppression
Adds a brick
To the pyramid of hate, aggression.
Brethren! You know
The boiling froth
Of our own Samaawaar
Extinguishes but its own
Useful fire.
A thing I feel in lack and dire*

Your emotions need

To be complementary

*To your action and character.
Then will the pyramid
Ultimately bang
Putting the oppressor*

In dang.

*And O the elites on Islam.
I heard angels
Complaining something different here.
Why there is so dearth
Of Islamic arts,
You see,
From kids to young
From young to old
The minds have been*

Almost swaged

By the plethora of mass media.

Our female folk

See drama serials going on

For years together.

To our very little kids

Has remained

Our big mobiles

The only robotic toy.

What unmarried folk access

On the internet

Is a question to you not so less.

You know!

Every kind of mass media

Has less or more

A kind of hypnotic effect

On minds to pore.

You know!

Our high literate race

Are so indifferent

To reading on Islam.

Why !

Why!

Why!

I heard somewhere

There in your world.

Someone probably said

Had there been

One more Shakespeare born

Dent to the unseen would have been torn.

Ah! Islam has

Richest history

Richest authentic literature

And richest what not.

So O God of the valiant!

What can be done

To the paradox of paradoxes.
