A Desperate Cry

N. Lakshmi

A cry of pain and anguish
Is only the sole rite of all oppressed?
If guilty of deeds and found to retaliate,
Will be made to taste the power of ruly!
And then charisma of brutality

Is this is the rule of world or order of the day
To be left awaiting and waiting along the line,
For new sunshine, fresh hopes and promises
A reverie never sought and yet to be found
Since good old times and at world of rapidity
And times unknown to come?

The cry...heartening cries of desperate souls,
Never ever heard and ever to be heard...

If so is the game of life,
Let cry of desperate hearts remain with those,
Only born to inherit!
And with those born blessed with acquaintance,
To be continued to haunt, even at grave...
