Black Corridor

Moumita Bhowal

This moment waves alone
The aubade making it's own greeting tone.
Mine pole-star still no more
Black corridor gathers dark ashes in my door.
Some half burnt poetry remains only Soundless lover I am
The lamppost lightening still,
All the path between trees turned in a cloister
Mines pole-star awaits not yet
My walking shadow I can feel,
I can't walk more in a lorn roister.
This silence stays too long
My eyes endure every dark
Every ashes confine my breath
Though I wipe the half burnt mark.
Empty candle how can lighten all whence her breast is burnt,

Soundless lover I still
And the Black Corridor trying to my sober candle kill.
