Relationship

Sathyavathi. R

Enthralling isn't to hear?

Like the droplet that falls from the mountains which is crystalline,

Such is her virginity towards me.

My instincts tell me that she is a gift from above.

With a passion I started my life with her,

Never wanting to end it for another decennium.

Her love knew no bounds,

Which engulfed me,

Like the waves never ceasing to splash.

From the moment of carrying her over to the threshold

There was never a second I felt the need in my life.

Looking back the paths we crossed, it always held together and

Never solitary!

This beautiful star happened to fall in my life and

There's never been a moment,

Not being able to fulfil her desires as a perfect husband.

Short Biographical Note:

Seventeen hours of labor waiting for the long awaited cry of a baby girl, came to an end. Ogling eyes, blended characters of her mother and father, features of her great Granddad was brought wrapped in a linen cloth and she was named Sathyavathi.. Her veracity wanted her to be a candor, because she was conceived in truth and her name signifies it time and again. She is ever thankful to her God, who never ceases to stop her heart from pounding. She wanted to make a mark on this universe with her writing that stands for a decennium.
