The Hallucination of Life

Dr. Devendra Kumar Sharma
Assistant Professor,
Department of English & MELs,
Banasthali Vidyapith, Rajasthan.

Everyone is alone here, everyone is alone here.
Happiness or misery to share with whom?
Where everyone has the salt in his pocket,
none have any soothing balm for you.
Everyone is alone here, everyone is alone here.
Strangers do we meet sometimes
Time there comes when stranger thou become
The moment you come,
The moment you go,
Does remain anything calling your own?
Everyone is alone here, everyone is alone here.
The dream you decorate that shatters and breaks,
The real shakes hands with your ill fate,
Everyone is alone here, everyone is alone here.
Come here to search for truth,
In the world where all are deceitful?
Trying to make company with those who have never been faithful,
Everyone is alone here, everyone is alone here.
Encompassing the multiple identities you move with various stages of life,
Everyone is alone here, everyone is alone here.
Consider you a great player?
You are played by all you meet there
Everyone is alone here, everyone is alone here.
To say all the world is your part
To think everyone is with you

Was it not a mistaken belief of yours?
Everyone is alone here, everyone is alone here.
That who bears faces,
That which dumps the dresses,
Can you find them befitting to you?
Everyone is alone here, everyone is alone here.
Craving for what in this world?
Thou cannot find anything substantial and meaningful.
Friends are feigning.
Is the shadow your own?
Everyone is alone here, everyone is alone here.
Spend your time knowing others,
Have you ever known yourself?
Everyone is alone here, everyone is alone here.
Empty handed you came,
Go thou empty handed.
Every turn of life finds thou with none
Everyone is alone here, everyone is alone here.
