When every creature comes into the world. Then he does not know anything, a meat ball is full. But how does it become nine months in the womb of a small mother. And the eyes, nose, ears, all the right places and the same becomes the mind, heart, that is, the whole body, and even the mother who gives birth, does not know how an organism thrives in and comes out. If that organism is semi-developed and takes birth, then the parents do not have any difference, but when the same person comes in the form of a healthy child, then the whole family swells with joy. Parents fall in such a fascination that they cannot get past their age, whereas knowledge has said that when you were helpless, then you have to arrange to send the child here and even till the milk of the innocent child. The Supreme Father makes God, then you do not study in these illusions, but humans do not believe that they do not think so much about their right and duty, and start thinking about that child. While knowledge has said that the person who has been born will start speaking from time to time, but the father who became a human being thinks that now I will do everything, from today onwards, my father is my son. And as soon as this feeling comes in the mind of the parents, God leaves that child, trusting the father, and the father is eager to give up everything. And in this cycle he gets stuck so that the son is born that the Sami Samaj celebrates happiness and forgets that the father who is the creditor of the previous birth becomes the son so that whatever the father earns, the birth. As soon as I take it, my son says, "It is all mine". Belongs to my father. Earning has been a father: but Khata is a son. And in his fascination, after reading the father, like this, he fills the house, reads and writes, spends money thinking that if there is a house, then he starts doing another. And youth over.

And they got married, and they got out of service that the son goes away with his wife. The parents are left alone, yet the love is surrounded by illusion, then it is known that the son also became a father and was lost in his son, now he too sees only his son and daughter with nothing from the parents. This sequence goes on. And in this, the parents walk one of the two and live like a helpless one.

The society feels. It has a son, daughter-in-law, grandson and granddaughter, but it is not visible anywhere, and the money is transferred. So understand what you got, better than this. After the birth of child, you could have done a lot of youth in this birth if you spent time with them to take care of them as well as to save you, do well for society, and do some noble work. You could improve your life, you could do something for your society and country, your children would see and learn the same again and they also become good people because they do not need to teach you, watching their parents, children learn a lot. Let's go. But we say it only after the birth of a child. See, do not tell anyone about yourself, do not give food to anyone, they do not want to talk to them, they do not want to talk to them, I do not know all such things. We fill the mind with innocents, do not look at that child, they are not good people, you have scolded your teacher for so much fun, let me tell you what the status of a teacher is before your father. Let's talk right now, these things get engraved in the hearts of children and they do not understand anyone, you are only my son's love. I also take away his childhood, nowadays both parents are in service, so their own The children give the hands of others and there, those children who learn something by speaking, not speaking, in the context of their parents, only understand those who take care of them. And why do they take care of them, they have little attachment in their mind. Here too, parents can only give money to the children, the love and sanskars they want. They can not give them, there is a need to nurture children from age one to ten years in which, except the temptation, some good citizen to the child, Have to be filled with sanskars which we do not know nor allow children to do, but the temptation is that by looting everything, in the old age, till then, it is not a matter of shelter. Therefore, after the birth of your children beyond Maya's fascination, they are made human beings and not weighed in money and body.

And, humans will start appearing on the earth with humanity once again.
