Love in Quarantine

Jagrati Kawde

English literature, semester 3rd (2020)

RDVV university, MKB college of Jabalpur (MP)

Never have I ever realised this
As the water for a fish
A sign of love as a kiss
On the forehead as one miss

The pool of love
The domain of life
That thirsty heart never suffices
For the real and rare

I was confused at the times
What is there that is mine?
Then comes this quarantine
Who told me what is mine?

The love that is real
The love that is rare
Is the only thing that is mine
Realised in this quarantine

Parents, family and pedigree
This is the one that is elementary
Ever lasting and Never ending
The Love that creates the Bonding

The kiss on frons

Parents as the drones

Everywhere with me

That's the real me

Nothing but a shadow of their love.
