Lonely Soul

Kathakali Banerjee

Nothing hurts anymore and these faces are unfamiliar

In obscure streets and abandoned houses.

The sky is cherry red dripping blood from window panes, my nights are lonely

You say I have dead eyes, there is no fire in my veins to understand your love

How to let go, there is nothing to hold on to

To you, my love is a temporary moment but I have permanent solutions to these vacancies we create

But I am vacant

I am empty And you are too full of love

But empty in our love

I have run amidst sunflowers fields in white dresses and worn the sunset as my crown

I do not know where to stop for I have never known the way at all

The color of my unconditional love is pale because of you,

O Beloved you broke the canvas

They say, there is so much to isolate yourself from others

I am isolating myself from me

My myself is you

The apart love story you created

I will decorate it by pain

I don't want me

O, Beloved! I don't want me
