Rootlessness

Kuhoo Singh

Once the ink oozed out on paper
I feel becomes immortal
the passer-by thoughts become shaped words.
For this is the reason I must tell you makes me scared
to write about you.
A person running away from every whim
confined to a shiny cage leaving everything to chance is just not him.
Running towards the closed door
as if time is the only factor.
Seems good to fall in love with someone before it stops getting better.
My roots clutch the soil
of the familiar seabed.
What if I am not the kind of plant that grows again once uprooted?
