The Beginning of Change

Dr. Chahra Beloufa

I need to narrate
Long life fading fates
Measurable losses
Are nothing harming but choices
Decided out of fear
Out of rushing forces...
I need to speak the truth
To convict the voices
That criminalize honesty
The truth needs to be taught
To be advocated, surmounted and celebrated
Yet in the land of ancient minds
Of residential old habits
Nothing is changeable
For them Change is a sin
For them change is in wheelchair
Disrespected for its normal disability
Which is not a handicap;
A normal change of feasibility
I need to speak the truth
Of how lost I was
During days of my fired success
But loosing me they have lost everything

They have gained sins and lost change
The change that will buy them secret wealth
Thank God I left
Now away from miseries
Now away from daily grudges and delinquencies
Now away from rotten old brains
That fired my fresh mind
With idle idiosyncrasies
