

The Criterion: An International Journal in English

Bi-Monthly Peer-Reviewed Open Access e-Journal

(ISSN: 0976-8165) Vol. 17, Issue-II, April 2026

www.the-criterion.com

A Light in A Foreign Land

Tami Aisha

20/01/2024:

In this noisy and nuisance life
And loud buzz that vibrate walls
That make me feel lost and sometimes strife
With all its falls and tiring calls
You guide me with your counsel drive
Leading to happiness, relief and nice mores
Protecting with delight to keep me alive
You with “a friend in need is a friend indeed”, are in the cores

You say you're busy
Teaching, learning and playing
I feel something is fuzzy
You keep it hidden without clarifying
This makes me feel dizzy
Because I don't like you hiding
Anything you feel even if it is silly
You are the one who is always fulfilling
Making my day with his reactions and witty

26/01/2024:

When you read those lines

The Criterion: An International Journal in English

Bi-Monthly Peer-Reviewed Open Access e-Journal

(ISSN: 0976-8165) Vol. 17, Issue-II, April 2026

www.the-criterion.com

You said nothing was hidden inside
I am sorry, bro, this fault was mine
Please, don't take it as a slide
Just ignore it and make everything as much as fine

A friend a brother or whatsoever
You are the closed
And for me, nothing will matter
I always feel blessed
And don't care for the chatter
When I see you I confessed?
All things around become better.

But there is something to say
That I have and I always ignore
That feeling of desire to stay
With you; the thing which I need more
Since someday you will be away and nothing will be like before
But hope will exist in every pray
That all our days will be something to restore

In India, in Syria or in any other place
I believe we will be there in the world
Together, with all that grace

The Criterion: An International Journal in English

Bi-Monthly Peer-Reviewed Open Access e-Journal

(ISSN: 0976-8165) Vol. 17, Issue-II, April 2026

www.the-criterion.com

Since you and me have always learned

What it means to do and pray

Tami Aisha's Bio-Note:

Tami Aisha is currently a PhD scholar at EFL University, Hyderabad, India. Born In Homs, Syria, Tami was educated at Homs University in Homs, Syria and graduated with a Bachelors degree in English Literature. Tami then gained a Diploma in ELT, a Diploma in Translation and Arabization, and an MA in English Literature from the same university.

She embarked on teaching the English language to undergraduate students at Homs University and two governmental schools in Homs, Syria. She was also an online teacher of the Arabic language to non-native speakers and a volunteer translator at SARC.

In India, she presented her country at the two Foreign Students' Cultural Festivals, so far, in 2024 and 2025, at EFLU. She also presented two papers at international conferences held at EFLU, "Wither Integrative Humanities? Paths and Challenges" in August 2024 and "Graphic Narratives and Comic Studies as World Literature Phenomena" in February 2025. She volunteered in the organizing committees in both conferences. She also did an online presentation for a paper at a conference, "Paradigms in Flux: Contemporary Discourses and Trajectories in the Humanities", held in Aliah University, Kolkata in September 2025. Besides, she presented a paper at the international conference, "Plural Pasts, Shared Futures: Global Literary Interconnections" held at Osmania University in November 2025. She is currently a third year PhD scholar working on Childhood Studies.

After getting her PhD, she plans to work as a doctor at Homs University and to undertake some beneficial projects for children around the world.